

SDC PhD project approval form

With this form it is understood that the outlined PhD project is a relevant part of the SDC research collaboration and supports both education and research within the framework of SDC.

Furthermore, all parties agree upon their obligations to

- integrate the PhD student in the SDC research cooperation
- integrate the PhD student in local research environments
- support the PhD student in completing the PhD programme
- assist in providing access to necessary facilities for the PhD student

Page 1/2

Returning the form

All parties must fill out the form accordingly and send it to phd@sdcc.university

The PhD Project

SDC Research Area
Working title of the PhD project
Expected start of employment (dd-mm-yyyy)
Stay in China (only applicable for the Danish side)	<input type="checkbox"/> Min. 6 months <input type="checkbox"/> Min. 9 months <input type="checkbox"/> Min. 12 months
Please provide a brief description of the PhD project and the affiliation with an SDC research area here or in an appendix

Main supervisor

Name
Email
University
Department/Institute

Co-supervisor

Name
Signature
E-mail
University
Department/Institute

PhD student (when applicable)

Family Name:		Given Name:
E-mail
University
Nationality

Signatures*

With the Principal Coordinators' signature, it is confirmed that all mentioned parties are aware of their role in the present SDC PhD project

Danish Principal Coordinator

Chinese Principal Coordinator

Morten Laugesen, Executive Director

WANG Haiyan, Dean of Sino-Danish College

*Signatures

This form is a prerequisite for initiating an SDC PhD project thus signatures from both Principal Coordinators, the Executive Director and the Dean of Sino-Danish College are required.